Colonel Benson had been for some time operating in the vicinity of Bethel, which is northeast of Standerton. He surprised Boer laager Oct. 22 near Trich ardsfontein, taking thirty-seven prisoners. Three days later, according to Lord Kitchener's report at the time, after a long night march, the commandoes under Grocelaar and Erasmus "heavily attacked Benson's rear guard and flanks at Yzirvarkfontein, but were easily driven away." Whether this was the attack which resulted so disas trously or whether the Boers who had been repulsed took advantage of the mist to renew the attack, is still unexplained. Lord Kitchener does not give the date of the Bethel engagement.
